1. Dance 'Til Dawn: Strictly Come Dancing favourites Vincent Simone and Flavia Cacace return with their brand new show, a classic love story bringing vintage Hollywood glamour to the present day, at the Theatre Royal. Tickets are available from www.trch.co.uk, the box office or call 0115 9895555.

2. Musicwood: Part of the UK Green Film Festival, it tells the story of a band of famous guitar-makers who travel to a primeval rain forest in a bid to negotiate with Native American loggers before it's too late for acoustic guitars. The result is the funny, complex and heartbreaking story of a profound cultural conflict and a battle over natural resources. Showing at Broadway Cinema at 6pm. Book at www.broadway.org.uk/tickets or call 0115 9526611.

3. Hiding Out: Nottingham-born artist Perminder Kaur creates sculptural objects and installations exploring the territory of home, belonging and cultural identity. Little figures and animals fashioned in soft fleece are the players in her game. Admission to the Djanogly Art Gallery, Lakeside Arts Centre, is free.

4. Brian Hazelby: Nottingham Organ Society presents organist Brian Hazelby – a man who is often tempted to play classical, ragtime and jazz if there's a good piano. Bonington Theatre, High Street, Arnold, 7.30pm. Tickets £6.50 (children £4.00), call the box office on 0115 956 0733.

5. The Lady Boys of Bangkok: Described as 'an inferno of fun' the Lady Boys present their new production Red Hot Kisses with unique tributes to Kylie, Tina Turner, and Robbie and perform to an eclectic mix of tunes from Moulin Rouge to Hairspray. The show starts at 7.30pm. Tickets £21.50 are available from 01623 633133 or book online at www.mansfield.gov.uk/palacetheatre

6. East India Youth: Aka William Doyle, from Bournemouth, is an electronic musician who released his first album Total Strife Forever earlier this year. See him at The Bodega, doors open 7pm. Tickets £8.25 from www.alt-tickets.co.uk or call 0845 413 4444.
